I.

- Received the revised side by side for the finance minor, the proposer reported that the department decided not to do anything additional for minor students who may not have all of the prerequisites beyond how they had already revised preqs.
- Later it was brought up that this program was additionally changing the mode of delivery from face to face to multi-modal.

2-15-

Approved on a Greenawalt/Lewis motion unanimous

- None

a. 21-69 EDEX 425 Methods and Curriculum Mild-Moderate Disabilities, course revision, distance education, catalog description change, modification of prerequisites, course title change (was Methods and Curriculum (Mild-Moderate Disabilities)), teacher education

- the proposer is just reducing the number of SLOs.
- Start the catalog description with assessment methods . . .
- ies the SLOs.
- A request was made to make the titles of 425 and 435 consistent with or without () [Proposer removed () in this title, which adds course title change as another change] Provisionally approved on Racchini/ Sobolewski motion- unanimous.

b. 21-70 EDUC 493 ESL Field Experience, new course

- The course has been proposed by an English professor but will be offered as EDUC because the use of ENGL 493 was creating confusion. This is not really a new course. Letter of support from ENGL is not needed since the proposer is from English Dept. A15- catalog description does not follow our tradition but should be kept that way. Approved on a Greenawalt/Racchini motion- unanimous.

c. EDEX 435 Methods and Curriculum Severe Cognitive Disabilities Course revision, distance education

- Severe Cognitive Disabilities is not on parentheses. Ask that the two course be consistent.

--Ask that the proposer just needs to revise one of the titles of 425 or 435 so either no () or () in both.

Approved on a Greenawalt/Dassier motion unanimous.

d. PHYS 122 Physics Lab II Course Revision, Lab Hour Changes, and Modification of Prerequisites

--Changed from 3 to 2 lab hours.

Approved on Sell/Greenawalt motion Sobolewski abstain 42
